BASTILLE 1789

Bastille 1789 is a luxury whisky hand-crafted in France. This revolutionary spirit is produced from barley and wheat grown in northeast France. The water used during production is naturally filtered through limestone ensuring incredible purity. Bastille 1789's innovative distillation process combines traditional and cutting-edge techniques to express the natural characteristics of the terroir, water and malt. Its delicate aromas and smooth profile make Bastille 1789 the perfect ingredient in traditional and modern cocktails.
