

CASTELLO DI FONTERUTOLI

Castello di Fonterutoli

Castello di Fonterutoli, source of some of Italy's most prestigious wines, is a historic estate which has been in the hands of the Mazzei family — devoted to winemaking for 24 generations — since 1435. Ser Lapo Mazzei has the oldest known contract for Chianti and is considered the father of the Chianti name.

PRODUCTION AREA
Chianti, Tuscany, Italy

GRAPE VARIETIES
80% Sangiovese, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

COLOR
Deep, dark purple

AROMA
Aromas of dark fruit combine with notes of black olive, smoke and toast

TASTE
Powerful, rich and elegant, the ultimate expression of the different terroirs of the Fonterutoli estate

SERVING SUGGESTIONS
Enjoy with pasta and chicken dishes and all Italian fare

REVIEWS AND AWARDS
2005 – 90 Points – Robert Parker

FON09TC1 PalmBay.com ©2009 Palm Bay International, Boca Raton, FL

CASTELLO DI FONTERUTOLI

Castello di Fonterutoli

Castello di Fonterutoli, source of some of Italy's most prestigious wines, is a historic estate which has been in the hands of the Mazzei family — devoted to winemaking for 24 generations — since 1435. Ser Lapo Mazzei has the oldest known contract for Chianti and is considered the father of the Chianti name.

PRODUCTION AREA
Chianti, Tuscany, Italy

GRAPE VARIETIES
80% Sangiovese, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

COLOR
Deep, dark purple

AROMA
Aromas of dark fruit combine with notes of black olive, smoke and toast

TASTE
Powerful, rich and elegant, the ultimate expression of the different terroirs of the Fonterutoli estate

SERVING SUGGESTIONS
Enjoy with pasta and chicken dishes and all Italian fare

REVIEWS AND AWARDS
2005 – 90 Points – Robert Parker

FON09TC1 PalmBay.com ©2009 Palm Bay International, Boca Raton, FL

CASTELLO DI FONTERUTOLI

Castello di Fonterutoli

Castello di Fonterutoli, source of some of Italy's most prestigious wines, is a historic estate which has been in the hands of the Mazzei family — devoted to winemaking for 24 generations — since 1435. Ser Lapo Mazzei has the oldest known contract for Chianti and is considered the father of the Chianti name.

PRODUCTION AREA
Chianti, Tuscany, Italy

GRAPE VARIETIES
80% Sangiovese, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

COLOR
Deep, dark purple

AROMA
Aromas of dark fruit combine with notes of black olive, smoke and toast

TASTE
Powerful, rich and elegant, the ultimate expression of the different terroirs of the Fonterutoli estate

SERVING SUGGESTIONS
Enjoy with pasta and chicken dishes and all Italian fare

REVIEWS AND AWARDS
2005 – 90 Points – Robert Parker

FON09TC1 PalmBay.com ©2009 Palm Bay International, Boca Raton, FL

CASTELLO DI FONTERUTOLI

Castello di Fonterutoli

Castello di Fonterutoli, source of some of Italy's most prestigious wines, is a historic estate which has been in the hands of the Mazzei family — devoted to winemaking for 24 generations — since 1435. Ser Lapo Mazzei has the oldest known contract for Chianti and is considered the father of the Chianti name.

PRODUCTION AREA
Chianti, Tuscany, Italy

GRAPE VARIETIES
80% Sangiovese, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

COLOR
Deep, dark purple

AROMA
Aromas of dark fruit combine with notes of black olive, smoke and toast

TASTE
Powerful, rich and elegant, the ultimate expression of the different terroirs of the Fonterutoli estate

SERVING SUGGESTIONS
Enjoy with pasta and chicken dishes and all Italian fare

REVIEWS AND AWARDS
2005 – 90 Points – Robert Parker

FON09TC1 PalmBay.com ©2009 Palm Bay International, Boca Raton, FL